

A photograph of Shawn Fair, a man in a grey suit and white shirt, speaking at a conference. He is in the foreground, looking slightly to the right. In the background, other men in suits are visible, some gesturing. The lighting is dramatic, with a dark background and some highlights on the speakers.

SHAWN FAIR ELECTRIFYING & DYNAMIC LEADERSHIP SPEAKER

Shawn Fair is a corporate leadership, consultative sales and vision expert. He has seen the word leadership defined numerous ways over the years. But he characterizes leadership in five words: lead by example, trustworthiness, mutual, respect and praise.

He has a unique ability to bring leaders of all levels to the realization that their team's performance is largely depended upon their ability to lead.

With over two decades of motivational speaking, training, executive coaching, and most importantly, real-life, in-the-trenches business experience, Shawn's knowledge and delivery style places him among the best leadership and vision speakers in the country.

His presentations are dynamic, thought provoking, engaging and inspires his audience to make immediate changes that promote employee development, growth and the expansion of their team's capacity.

Shawn continues to bring the very best out leaders. He's done it on big stages such as the Rio Grande Casino in Las Vegas, NV and the Sound Board Room in the Motor City Casino in Detroit but no matter where he goes, leader always ask for more. Get more information and see Shawn in action at fairconsultinggroup.com