

Tom Lico is the President and Chief Operating Officer of Capital Title Insurance Agency based in Southfield, Michigan and has been in that role since 2004. Prior to working for Capital Title, Tom has served in various capacities in the real estate and lending industries beginning in 1988.

Since 2004, he has also served on the Executive Committee of Real Estate One - Michigan's largest real estate brokerage firm. From July 2011 - July 2015, Tom was a charter member of an Agency Advisory Board of a national title underwriter. Since July 2014, he has served as a Board Director for the Michigan Land Title Association and is currently the President - Elect. Tom is scheduled to be the MLTA President in July 2019. He is also an active board member of RESPRO and co-chairs the planning committee for the bi-annual Realty Alliance Title conferences.