

Dan Elsea
Real Estate One
President – Brokerage Services

Dan, currently serves as President of Brokerage Services for the Real Estate One Family of Companies. He and his brother Stuart share the leadership of the company and its affiliates. The company is in its fourth generation in Michigan, having begun as Elsea Realty in 1929. Real Estate One is the largest broker in Michigan with 79 offices and 2,400 sales associates throughout the state. In 2021 the Real Estate One family of companies handled 7.0 billion in sales and completed over 36,000 transactions in brokerage, mortgage, title and casualty insurance. Real Estate One operates under a number of well know local brands including Max Broock Realtors, Reinhart Realtors, Johnstone & Johnstone and Remerica in addition to the Real Estate One brand throughout the State.

For the past ten years the Real Estate One Family has been named both one of Michigan's Top Workplaces and Best and Brightest companies.

Dan has been with the company since 1983, starting in commercial real estate then moving to residential as a Regional Vice President and finally in his current roll in 2000.

Throughout his career Dan has served on a number of industry Realtor boards and in various committee capacities at the state, local and national levels as well as a member of the Leading RE Board of Directors, National Association of Realtors (NAR) Executive Committee and Chairmen of both the NAR RES and larger broker forums.